"I loved the "quiet skills" that Music Mind Games teaches such as character qualities needed to develop life skills, e.g. assertiveness, faith, gentleness, goodness, honesty, joy, kindness, love, patience, place, self control, self-esteem and understanding that I endeavor to promote in my teaching." Marthé M.

"This has taught me how to teach in an incredibly fun and non-threatening way." Tari. R

"I am taking home more ideas than I'll be able to use in years of group teaching and lots of techniques to use with specific problems in private teaching." Melissa R.
